The PLATEAU GAZETTE has no patent outside or inside, but is all set up and printed in Rugby, and, for its size, contains more local and general news, and original work than any other paper in Tennessee. Being printed, too, from good type, and upon good paper, with good ink, it can be read when you get it, which is saying a good deal more than can be said of many papers in the State. It is also trying to do a good work for the Plateau, and should have a good support. Let us see your good works by liberal subscriptions.

The only complete story of his noble life and tragic eath. Fresh, brilliant greliable. Elegantly printed in English and German; beautifully illustrated; anisomely bound.
